Potluck Guidelines

A potluck is an event in which attendees of the event provide food and beverages which are shared with other attendees and consumed while at the event. The individual(s) conducting or assisting with the event and anyone who provides food and beverage shall not receive compensation or be paid by any person who consumes the food or beverage at the event.

An event can only be sponsored by a church, religious, fraternal, youth, organization, or service club, a civic organization, a parent-teacher organization, a senior center or an adult day care center.
